Dear Boy/Cub Scout Leader:

Make tracks to ZooAmerica® for our 4th annual Boy Scout Day! We are proud to offer this annual event on Saturday, March 27, 2010 from 10 AM to 4 PM. Both Cub and Boy Scouts will enjoy all the adventures that the zoo has to offer. Your boys can participate in a variety of activities, including crafts, conservation stations and animal encounters. You will learn about the diversity of our native North American species during this special Scout day.

Your troop will have the opportunity to explore the zoo, at your own pace, while participating in activities at the various Scout stations throughout the zoo. We recommend you allow at least two hours to visit the stations and the zoo.

All Scout troops must be pre-registered and pre-paid to participate. Order your tickets early and save!
