

Wild Winter Adventure

December 28 and 29, 2009

Dear Parents:

If your child hungers for adventure, beat the Holiday Hibernation and warm your child's heart this December! Back by popular demand, ZooAmerica® will again offer Wild Winter Adventure December 28 and 29, 2009. This 3 hour program is designed for children (grades K – 3).

As a program participant, your child will learn how animals protect themselves, explore ZooAmerica and watch our North American Animals frolic in their winter habitats, get up-close and personal with live animal encounters and enjoy a snack.

In 2009, ZooAmerica has added a new Education Room as well as species to our collection, including Steve & Dean, our American Pine Martins, Spirit, our American Bald Eagle! Coupled with crowd favorites like the Black Bears and Wolves, this year's program is gearing up to be the hottest hit of the winter season.

Dates for this winter adventure are December 28 or 29, from 1:00 – 4:00 PM. All children must be pre-registered and pre-paid to participate. Space is limited so register early. Registration deadline is Friday, December 14, 2009. For your convenience, please use the enclosed order form.

For additional information, please call 717-534-3900 or visit ZooAmerica.com!

Sincerely,

ZooAmerica Staff
